

Meet Mrs. Carol Thompkins, Director of CDC

How long have you been serving at Langston?

I have served as a member of Langston approximately 27 years. I began as Director of CDC in November of 2006.

What about your family?

I have been married to Sidney for almost 25 years. I have 2 daughters. One is married and lives in Columbia. She and her husband are both CPAs. I have a 4 month old grandson. My other daughter will graduate from college in December with a degree in Marketing.

Who is your favorite Bible character and why?

King David. Even though he sinned, God still said he was a man after His own heart. No matter what, I want God to say that about me.

What is your favorite Scripture or Life Verse?

“Who am I and what is my house that you have brought me this far?” 1 Chron. 17:16

What is your favorite hymn/song?

“The King of Who I Am”

Who do you admire most and why?

I was raised in an abusive alcoholic home. I was a very unhappy child who felt like no one loved me. When I was in the sixth grade, a high school senior had a locker over mine. I was the “cute little kid” that he picked up and tossed about (all innocent). He was the first person in my life to ever make me feel that I was worth anything. We still see each other occasionally and he still lifts me off the floor and kisses my cheek. I tell him all the time how I’ve always loved him.

What is your favorite restaurant?

Carraba’s

What do you do for fun?

I like to run. I have given it up, but hope to pursue it again.

What team(s) do you root for?

What’s your dream vacation?

Japan
